Dear Parents and Guardians of GHS students,

As you know, Gridley High School has a history of academic excellence. One of the ways we demonstrate this is through state assessments and Advanced Placement testing. You recently received a letter from our District Projects Coordinator, Michael Pilakowski, explaining the California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress (CAASPP). Gridley High School not only participates in state testing, but also Advanced Placement Testing (for students enrolled in those courses). We're sending home this schedule of all the tests in April and May, on one concise reference page.

Please help your child by ensuring they get a good night's rest and a healthy breakfast on the day of their testing.
